From 4 May 2021, the way your wedding is registered with the Registrar's Office has changed. You will no longer sign a register or be given a certificate on your wedding day. Instead you will sign a Marriage Document on the day and then apply for your certificate after your wedding (direct to the Registrar at Bedford Borough Hall). The new system also means that you can have up to four parents named on your Marriage Certificate. Please complete those details on the form below. If you only want one recorded that's fine - just complete those you want to appear.
